Public: Low Gap Holdings is a hidden gem with all the creature comforts of home! Peaceful, off grid retreat is nestled inside 272 acres with a nicely treed Ponderosa Pine, Douglas Fir and juniper forest. Bull Run Creek flows year-round with easy access on horseback, afoot or ATV. This sanctuary of solitude with recreation at its best located ten miles from town. Perimeter fenced with survey and offers light summer grazing for added income and fire suppression. Junipers can be cut for thinning, firewood and craft projects. Light to heavily timbered draws offer excellent cover for the wildlife habitat that call this home. Along with hunting, hiking, biking, atv trails plus horn hunting ... there is plenty of stargazing and no light pollution all behind a locked gate. A year-round county-maintained road splits property. Borders private and public lands with access beyond to Malheur National Forest, where private land barons retain ownership and investments like this rarely come on market. Property qualifies for LOP tags North Side Hunting Unit. This hunting retreat offers first rate camping on a large, shady clearing with leveled parking area with 1675 gallon in ground water tank with prolific spring fed gravity flow piped to outside the container-converted-into-a-cabin. Generator and propane/butane heat and appliances. This turnkey hunting camp can include for purchase outside escrow 1- 8x40 and 4- 8x20 steel cargo containers including the modified sleeping quarters. Cooking area, 1 griddle butane stove, built in bed, table, well vented, and insulated under container. Wired 100 Amp, oak cabinets, clothes pole, and is fireproofed and insulated to install wood stove. This is an outdoor playground with lots of possibilities with endless ideas. With timber, 2 creeks, excellent springs, wildlife and privacy, this property is truly one of a kind! Other equipment can be purchased outside escrow.
